

Inspire to Teach; Teach Through Play

Signing and Sensory Exploration for Kids of All Ages and Abilities

A seminar designed for infant/toddler, preschool, and early elementary professionals.

Saturday, September 16, 2017

8:30 a.m. - 3:00 p.m.

Barton Community College

Fine Arts Building

$49 - includes seminar, lunch, snacks, and materials

Six (6) hour KDHE approval has been requested.

Kristin Freed Sessions

Sensational Classroom- Focus on the Body's Senses

What's in a Game- Skills Attained through Play

Kristin has been an occupational therapist for 20 years working exclusively with young children in a school setting. She has completed extensive training in the areas of sensory integration, visual impairments, and Autism.

Beth Reeder Sessions

How to be a Professional in the Child Care World

Let Them Have Dirt...Kid-er Gardening

Beth received a Bachelor's Degree in Elementary Education/Speech Communication. She has offered dynamic sessions and keynote presentations at Barton Community College for over 15 years.

Ken & Georgia Frawley Sessions

Say, Sing & Sign

Play-Along Songs

Benefits of American Sign Language & Music for Infants and Toddlers

Ken and Georgia are co-authors of Sign to Speak books, which focus on signing with children of all ages. They also co-authored Play-Along Songs music books, which offer a host of interactive songs.

For more information or to register, contact Teri Smith at (620) 792-9255 or smithte@bartonccc.edu. Deadline to register is Friday, September 8th!

BARTON
EARLY CHILDHOOD