

Structural Aircraft Assembly Mechanic

Must be able to read and interpret blueprints (i.e. 2D prints, PCMs)

Ability to interpret industry and OEM specifications (fastener installation, torqueing, sealing, aerodynamic surfaces, etc.)

Prefer broad experience base including skin quality surfaces, sealing, torqueing, electrical bonding, bearing swaging, tapping, staking, and etc.

Must be a motivated team player with attention to detail as projects range from basic assemblies to sophisticated rocket and satellite components

Great working conditions - Air-conditioned shop
10 hour shifts, Mon-Fri

Must be able to lift 50lbs

D-J Engineering is an EOE

Personal traits

We need someone who is reliable that the team can count on. Who can multitask and problem solve as a team player.

Apply in person – 219 W 6th Ave; Augusta, KS

Email – jobs@djgrp.com

Fax – 316-775-4836