The Learning, Instruction and Curriculum Committee (LICC) exists as a faculty driven committee to oversee the college curriculum.

- Review and approve all curriculum matters and changes (credit hour change, title change, new classes, programs, etc.).
- Function as a vehicle to encourage a focus toward student and institutional learning.
- Function as a vehicle to ensure a quality and comprehensive curriculum.
- Function as a vehicle to support faculty professional development.
- Be mindful of the "total" College curriculum in its decisions so that the College's interests are inclusive of all locations, all delivery methods, and all types of courses.
