Pursuit of study within modern languages prepares students by providing language fluency that can be transferred well beyond a four year degree. The tools within modern language studies provide an edge in the job market and as well an appreciation of other languages while fostering critical thinking.

Students Preparing to Transfer

Fine and Performing Arts

Barton Community College's Modern Languages curriculum is designed to provide the general education requirement and core Modern Languages courses for students who plan to transfer to a four year college or university to complete a bachelor's degree in Modern Languages or related field. Electives must meet the requirements of your transferring institution. Students should coordinate with their advisor for transferability.
