ABOUT THE COLLEGE

bartonccc.edu/aboutbarton

The idea to create a community college in Barton County was introduced in the early 1960s at the Mayflower Café, a popular Great Bend restaurant on Forest Avenue where businessmen gathered for coffee and conversation. Those early proponents were dedicated to the proposition that everyone has the right to higher education.

Former Great Bend Tribune editor Paul Conrad, the Great Bend Jaycees and later the entire community was involved in bringing a community college to Barton County. Beginning with a feasibility study in 1960 and overcoming a 1962 election defeat, Barton Community College was founded in 1965.

J.A. Mermis chaired the original Board of Trustees. With the trustees at work long before the first students arrived, the college exceeded all expectations from the beginning.

When the college opened in the fall of 1969, more than 1,000 students enrolled in the first classes when only 525 were expected. Today, the college serves more than 13,000 students annually, averaging more than 6,000 headcount and more than 1,000 full-time equivalency each semester.

Throughout its history, the college has been dedicated to the philosophy that the individual is society's greatest resource and has relied on its greatest strength, its employees. From the care given to the physical plant to the individual attention given in its classrooms, the staff and faculty have successfully attracted students from all over the state of Kansas, the nation and beyond.

Barton graduates who transfer have performed as well or better than the university students who started at their respective colleges, according to the universities' reports. Community college students who have entered the workforce have matched the success of their university peers.

The local citizenry and the college's faculty, staff and students put the "community" in Barton Community College and have spread its influence across the state and nation. The college has earned a reputation for its responsiveness to community needs, its adaptability to the changing environment, and its commitment to learning as a lifelong process.
