A photograph of a single-story brick building with a gabled roof. The building is constructed of red brick and features a central entrance with white double doors set within a light-colored stone or concrete archway. To the right of the entrance, a white rectangular sign is mounted on the brick wall with the text "ARMY EDUCATION CENTER" in black, bold, sans-serif capital letters. The building has white gutters and downspouts. There are windows on either side of the entrance, some with dark shutters. The building is situated on a grassy area with a paved walkway leading to the doors. In the background, there are trees and a clear blue sky with some light clouds.
