Barton Action Plan for COVID-19

As the world unites across borders to slow the spread of the Coronavirus Disease COVID-19 to protect the lives of those at risk, Barton Community College has identified a number of measures to do our part reduce the chance of exposure for students, faculty and staff and our community. Despite the challenging situation, Barton remains determined to continue to provide a high level of service and quality instruction. Haga clic aquí para español.

Face coverings are recommended for those who are unvaccinated and cannot maintain social distancing.

Opt Out Form

For those who opt out of being contacted regarding potential exposure but who may later recognize that they have likely been exposed to a COVID-19 positive person, Barton expects that these individuals will voluntarily undergo a self-quarantine, so as to minimize the potential spread of COVID-19 among our campus communities.
