Name of Committee

Instructional Review Committee

Purpose

The purpose of this committee is to promote continuous development and instructional quality while maintaining focus on student learning and strategic planning. The review process evaluates the effectiveness and progress of instructional programs and identifies goals with the support of data analysis that guide future direction and priorities.

Team Members

Team members will represent the following areas:

- Administration – Vice President of Administration
- Assessment – Coordinator of Assessment
- Institutional Effectiveness
 - Director of Institutional Effectiveness
 - Institutional Effectiveness Researcher
- Instruction
 - Vice President of Instruction
 - Dean of Academics
 - Dean of Military Academics, Technical Education, and Outreach Programs
 - Dean of Workforce Training and Community Education
 - Director of Student Academic Development

Expected Results

The Instructional Review Committee serves in support of Barton’s instructional review process. The members assist with the annual review of the instructional review template for enhancements and modifications, discuss completed reviews and look for areas of gaps in reported information, address data points and recommend additions and/or changes and serve as trainers/mentors for instructional review authors.
