FEEDBACK

"Without this services, I would not have pursued my goals. It has given me hope and direction in life again."

"I was very encouraged and received the help I needed."

"The EOC staff did a wonderful job of listening to my needs and completely relieved my anxiety about returning to school."

"The EOC staff gave me all of the information that was essential for me to start my career."

"As I am going back to college, there have been many questions I have had. It is so nice to be able to have someone help me and answer my questions."

The Central Kansas Educational Opportunity Center began offering FREE educational services to Kansas residents in 1998. CKEOC is 100% funded by the U.S. Department of Education.

Barton Community College is the host institution for CKEOC.

The CKEOC is a TRIO program that evolved from the Economic Opportunity Act of 1964, in response to the administration's War on Poverty.

TRIO programs include eight outreach and support programs targeted to help disadvantaged students progress from middle school to post-baccalaureate programs.
