

(/)

CAREER PROGRAMS & TRAINING Adult Health Care

Academic Programs

< Back to Healthcare Programs

<http://bartoncougars.com/careerprograms/healthcare> | View Adult Healthcare Flier (https://www.dropbox.com/s/qwnsiss5bw5hw8r/PF_Adult%20Healthcare_102313ND.pdf) | Curriculum Guides

Career Programs & Training

> Ag & Industrial Tech

(/careerprograms/technical)

The Adult Healthcare program offerings include Certified Nurse Aide, Certified Medication Aide, ~~Home Health Aide~~, and ~~Activity Director/Social Service Designee~~. CMA update

> Business & Technology

(/careerprograms/business/technology)

Certified Nurse Aide (CNA)

> Healthcare

(/careerprograms/healthcare)

The certified nurse aide course (CNA) is a 90 contact hour course that prepares students for the state certification exam. The CNA course is regulated by the Kansas Department of Health and Environment. CNA's provide direct care to residents of hospitals, assisted living centers, and long term care facilities. Students who wish to take the CNA course must successfully pass a reading assessment before being allowed to take the course.

> Early Childhood

(/careerprograms/earlychildhood)

> Public Safety

(/careerprograms/public/safety)

Certified Medication Aide

> Short-Term

Training Opportunities
(/wtce/training)

90 contact hour course that prepares students for the state certification exam. CMA's administer medications to residents in assisted living centers, hospitals, and long term care facilities. A Certified Nurse Aide certification is a requirement for CMA training.

> Workforce Training & Community

Education (/wtce)

What is a Certified Medication Aide?

C.M.A.'s administer medications to residents in assisted living centers, hospitals, and long term care facilities. A Certified Nurse Aide certification is a requirement for C.M.A. training.

Programs of Study

What does Barton Offer?

GED

Fine and Performing Arts

Online Options

- Certificate - 75 contact hour course (½ didactic; ½ clinical) that prepares students for the state certification examination
- Job shadowing opportunities
- Courses offered in a variety of communities
- Industry experience faculty members
- ~~Optional hybrid learning format~~

Why Barton's Medication Aide Program?

- Reputation
- Personal student support services

High School Student
 Programs
 Military Programs and Training

OSHA, HazMat &
 Emergency Mgmt.

Gainful Employment
 Report

- Barton is a State-approved testing center
- Barton offers CMA updates, which are required for re-licensure

Occupational Outlook and Earnings

- Excellent job opportunities will arise from a combination of rapid employment growth and the need to replace workers who leave the occupation each year.
- Median hourly earning of nursing aides were ~~$10.67 in May 2006~~. Medication aides generally make a higher hourly wage due to advanced training.

~~Home Health Aide~~ Not offered

Contact Us

Anita Barker
 Nursing Remediation/Adult
 Healthcare Coordinator
 (620) 792-9298
barkera@bartonccc.edu
 (mailto:barkera@bartonccc.edu)

The Home Health Aide course (HHA) is a 20 contact hour course that prepares students for the Kansas Department of Health and Environment state examination. HHA's administer ~~one-on-one~~ nursing care to patients in their homes. Students who wish to take the HHA course must successfully pass a reading assessment before being allowed to take the course.

Curriculum Guides

Christy Nemecc
 Secretary of Allied Health
 (620) 792-9266
nemecc@bartonccc.edu
 (mailto:nemecc@bartonccc.edu)

Curriculum Guides

Certificates

The Certified Nurse Aide Course (CNA) is a 90 contact hour course that prepares students for the state certification exam. CNA's provide direct care to residents of hospitals, assisted living centers, and long term care facilities. Students who wish to take the CNA course must successfully pass a reading assessment before being allowed to take the course.

Certified Nurse Aide \(http://docs.bartonccc.edu/Curriculum%20Guides/Nursing%20Aide/CertifiedNurseAide.pdf\)

The Certified Medication Aide Course (CMA) is a 75 contact hour course that prepares students for the state certification exam. CMA's administer medications to residents in assisted living centers, hospitals and long term care facilities. A Certified Nurse Aide certification is a requirement for CMA training.

Certified Medication Aide \(http://docs.bartonccc.edu/Curriculum%20Guides/Medication%20Aide/CertifiedMedicationAide.pdf\)

~~The Home Health Aide Course (HHA) is a 20 contact hour course that prepares students for the state certification exam. HHA's administer one-on-one nursing care to patients in their homes. Students must be Certified Nurse Aides and must successfully pass a reading assessment before taking HHA training.~~

~~Home Health Aide \(http://docs.bartonccc.edu/Curriculum%20Guides/Home%20Health%20Aide/HomeHealthAide.pdf\)~~

NOT OFFERED

RESOURCES

About Barton (/aboutbarton)

CONTACT