

Vern Fryberger is originally from Great Bend and has been a music educator in central Kansas for the since 1979. He received his Associate of Arts degree at Barton Community College and his Bachelor and Master's degrees in Music Education from Fort Hays State University. His teaching career includes one year at Fort Hays State University and 16 years teaching 7 - 12 vocal music in Ellinwood. Mr. Fryberger has been at Barton since 1995 serving as Director of Choral Activities as well as the Chair of Visual and Performing Arts. Vern has been teaching courses online for BartOnline and EDUKAN since 2002. In addition to his teaching duties Vern has served as music and/or stage director of 40 Broadway musical productions and has acted in 11 additional shows. In 2002 and 2014 Mr. Fryberger received the Distinguished Instructor Award from BCC. He received the NISOD Excellence in Education award in 2002 and again in 2012. He has been an active member of the Kansas Music Educators Association and the Kansas American Choral Directors Association holding offices at the district and state levels in both organizations. Mr. Fryberger has also served across the state as a clinician and adjudicator.