Document Summary:

LEARNING & INSTRUCTION CURRICULUM COMMITTEE

The Learning, Instruction and Curriculum Committee (LICC) exists as a faculty driven committee to oversee the college curriculum.

- * Review and approve all curriculum matters and changes (credit hour change, title change, new classes, programs, etc.).
- * Function as a vehicle to encourage a focus toward student and institutional learning.
- * Function as a vehicle to ensure a quality and comprehensive curriculum.
- * Function as a vehicle to review, encourage, ensure, and integrate classroom teaching and learning improvements and instructional planning as a result of Outcomes Assessment efforts.
- * Function as a vehicle to support faculty professional development.
- * Be mindful of the "total" College curriculum in its decisions so that the College's interests are inclusive of Ft. Riley, Outreach, non-credit, and alternate delivery learning.
