Library | Cohen Center for Kansas History

The Cohen Center for Kansas History is dedicated to preserving resources in Kansas and inspiring research in Kansas History. The Center is in the southeast alcove of Learning Resource Center on the main campus and is the result of the generosity of Barton P. and Dr. Mary Davidson Cohen of Leawood, Kansas.

The Cohens' not only donated the funds to renovate the portion of the library which is now the Cohen Center, but also the 1,200+ books that currently comprise the collection. It is the dream of the Cohens' and Barton County Community College that these donations will provide the foundation for an ever-growing collection and a library that is constantly evolving as the center of information for Barton and the communities it serves.

Visitors are welcomed to the Cohen Center. In order to guarantee the maximum benefit from the visit, however, we do request that arrangements be made prior to the visit. This will ensure that appropriate staff and resources are available. Details on arranging the the visit as well as parameters for use of the Center are found in the Cohen Center Usage Policies and Procedures.
