BARTON COMMUNITY COLLEGE COURSE SYLLABUS

I. GENERAL COURSE INFORMATION

Course Number: ENGL 1206
Course Title: English Composition II
Credit Hours: 3
Prerequisites: ENGL 1204 English Composition I with a grade of C or better
Division/Discipline: Academics Division/English
Course Description: This course builds on the skills mastered in the pre-requisite course and is a study of advanced problems in composition, emphasizing rhetorical and logical tools in argument development. A series of essays on controversial issues or problems, which lead to a final documented research essay, will train students both to interpret evidence well and to argue persuasively. The course will increase the student's ability to analyze and evaluate arguments and to express ideas clearly, concisely, logically and persuasively.

II. INSTRUCTOR INFORMATION

III. COLLEGE POLICIES

Students and faculty of Barton Community College constitute a special community engaged in the process of education. The College assumes that its students and faculty will demonstrate a code of personal honor that is based upon courtesy, integrity, common sense, and respect for others both within and outside the classroom.

Plagiarism on any academic endeavors at Barton Community College will not be tolerated. The student is responsible for learning the rules of, and avoiding instances of, intentional or unintentional plagiarism. Information about academic integrity is located in the Student Handbook.

The College reserves the right to suspend a student for conduct that is determined to be detrimental to the College educational endeavors as outlined in the College Catalog, Student Handbook, and College Policy & Procedure Manual. (Most up-to-date documents are available on the College webpage.)

Any student seeking an accommodation under the provisions of the Americans with Disability Act (ADA) is to notify Student Support Services via email at disabilityservices@bartonccc.edu.

IV. COURSE AS VIEWED IN THE TOTAL CURRICULUM

English Composition II is an approved general education course at Barton, which can be used to fulfill degree requirements as a fundamental course acceptable as general education credit towards any degree (A.A., A.S., A.G.S., or A.A.S. degree).

This course transfers well and may be used to help fulfill credit and course requirements for general education at most if not all Kansas Regents' institutions. General education requirements vary among institutions, and perhaps even among departments, colleges or programs within an institution. Also, these requirements may change from time to time and without notification. The students shall assume the responsibility to obtain relevant information from their intended transfer institutions during their tenure at Barton to ensure that they enroll in the most appropriate set of courses for the transfer program. Most will not accept this course unless the student earns a C or better.

V. ASSESSMENT OF STUDENT LEARNING

Barton Community College is committed to the assessment of student learning and to quality education. Assessment activities provide a means to develop an understanding of how students learn, what they know, and what they can do with their knowledge. Results from these various activities guide Barton, as a learning college, in finding ways to improve student learning.
