

October 10, 2013 Barton Campus forums

Dr. Heilman asked for introductions of new employees present.

Mary foley introduced Melissa Curry, Secretary; Tina Grillot, Coordinator of Industrial Technology Programs; and Mark Bogner, CNH Trainer.

Chris lemon introduced Anita Maloy, Secretary; and Luke Seitz, Instructional Specialist

Cheryl Lippert introduced Christy Nemec, Secretary.

Jane Howard introduced Karla Klein, Administration of Justice Programs Assistant.

The following employees were recognized for their Years of Service.

Julie Knoblich 35 years

Donna McCormick 20 years

Diane Engle 20 years

Pamela Henning 5 years

Nicole Berger 5 years

In recognition of Guy Causey, his commitments to the college were noted and what an exceptional person he was and how he will be missed. Appreciation was extended to Dr. Abel and Ange Sullivan in their efforts to cover all of his classes. A round of applause was given in memory of Guy Causey.

Stephannie Goerl and Kathy Boeger were recognized for 20 and 10 years of service respectively as sponsor and co-advisors for the Barton campus chapter of Phi Theta Kappa Honor Society.

Activities promoting customer service commitments were recognized.

Shanna Legleiter was recognized for her 17 years of service to Barton as she moves on at the end of the fall semester for a new job at K-State.

Tana Cooper gave a brief rundown of the events planned for the upcoming Jack Kilby Science Day.

It was noted that there is no new information on affordable healthcare, please see last email update from Mark Dean.

Employees were reminded to complete insurance enrollments.

Capital Projects Update –

Kirkman flooring and score board will be going up in next couple of months. Lights and sound going into the Fine Arts building with a ribbon cutting planned when complete. Progress on the dorm is being made. The generators are to be hooked up before snow flies. The practice facility construction is to begin soon.

Good news-- Barton had 11.3% enrollment increase...largest increase in the state.

Tuition and fees discussion will take place at the next board study session.