

2464 – Unsolicited Application Materials

The College does not accept unsolicited application materials, with the exception of part-time faculty and student positions. Individuals interested in employment opportunities are invited to contact the Office of Human Resources for information regarding any posted vacancies.

(Based on policy 1470; revised and approved by President on 10/16/07)