Cell Phones and Headphones

Patrons may use cell phones in the Library, provided they refrain from using the speakerphone function. If a phone is too loud and becomes distracting to others, patrons will be asked to lower the volume, switch to silent or vibration mode, or use headphones.

Please note that if the use of cell phones causes a disturbance, patrons may be required to cease use of these items, use the south lobby entrance for any necessary conversations, or leave the Library.
