

Constitution Day

Sept. 17th

Preamble of the United States Constitution is a brief introductory statement of the Constitution's fundamental purposes and guiding principles. It states in general terms, and courts have referred to it as reliable evidence of, the Founding Fathers' intentions regarding the Constitution's meaning and what they hoped the Constitution would achieve.

We The People of the United States , in order to form a more perfect union, establish justice, insure domestic tranquility, provide for the common defense, promote the general welfare, and secure the blessing of liberty to ourselves and our posterity, do ordain and establish this, Constitution for the United State of America.

*"America's most entertaining show on how we got our Flag and how we got the United States".
The video is about 57 minutes long and very entertaining.*

On September 17, 1787, the delegates to the Constitutional Convention met for the last time to sign the document they had created. We encourage all Americans to observe this important day in our nation's history. We need to show LOVE for the United States of America and the BLESSINGS of Freedom Our Founding Fathers secured for us.
