

How do I register to vote in Kansas? Fill out this form and submit it to the local county election office. Voter registration application \(Española\)

Kansans may also register to vote or change their registration information online with a valid Kansas driver's license or non-driver identification card. Deadline to register to vote is the twenty first day before any election.

http://www.kssos.org/elections/elections_registration.html

What is a Kansas Caucuses?

The Kansas Caucuses are organizational gathering of neighbors, run by the Kansas Democratic Party or the Kansas Republican Party, where Democrats/Republicans meet to conduct party business and declare their Presidential preference.

Democrats/Republicans gather to elect delegates to the Congressional district convention and address key issues important to their communities.

Where are the Kansas Caucuses?

Fine your caucus Location: Democratic Party Republican Party

How do the Democratic Caucuses work?

All attendees must register from 1:00-3:00 p.m., everyone must be in line by 3:00 p.m. in order to participate. Eligible caucus goers divide to form Presidential preference groups. If a preference group does not have enough people to be considered "viable", 15% of total caucus goers, eligible attendees will have an opportunity to join another preference group or acquire people into their group to become viable. Delegates are then awarded to the preference groups based on their size.

Who can participate in the caucuses?

Any person who is eligible to vote in state of Kansas and who will be 18 years old on Election Day, November 8, 2016, may participate in the Kansas caucuses. These individuals must reside in the Senate District in which they wish to participate, and they must be registered as a Democrat/Republican. Voter registration and party registration is available on the day of the caucus.

The Kansas Presidential Caucus will be held on Saturday, March 5. All registered Republicans are encouraged to find your location and attend.

Republican Caucus Rules Absentee Military Ballot

Frequently ask questions

How do I participate in the Caucus? On Saturday, March 5, bring a government issued photo ID (like a driver's license) to the caucus location. Each voter will have to have their registration verified.