Basic Rights: Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 ("Title IX"), is a Federal civil rights law that prohibits discrimination on the basis of sex in education programs and activities. All public and private colleges and universities (receiving any Federal funds) must comply with Title IX. Under Title IX, discrimination on the basis of sex can include sexual harassment or sexual violence, such as rape, sexual assault, sexual battery, and sexual coercion.

As an employee of Barton Community College, you are protected by Title IX. If you would like to report a violation of Title IX, please consider the following options:
