

Proposed Added ENDS Statement

POLICY TYPE: ENDS

POLICY TITLE: SERVICE REGIONS

The College service regions will support the institutional mission and be in accordance to available resources

- The College will identify regions of enrollment and student support services that are compatible with institutional mission.
- The College will identify regions of enrollment and student support services that are in accordance with available resources.
- The College will identify regions of enrollment and student support services that maximize revenues and minimize expenses.
- The College will identify regions of enrollment and student support services that minimize local tax reliance.
- The College will identify regions of enrollment and student support services that compliment growth of student learning services.

--This policy adopted on ??-??-????