

College Advantage: Taught by a Barton instructor at the student's school

Partnered Online: Taught online by a Barton instructor with a high school mentor in the room

Get Ahead Program (GAP): Taught on-campus or by Zoom

Barton Online : Asynchronous online class they can work on at school or home.

Excel in CTE (Senate Bill 155): A specific list of career and technical classes that cost no tuition.

- Offered online, on-campus, and at some high schools.
- Textbooks or materials charges may apply.

Students can benefit by:

- Building college courses into their high school schedules
- Experiencing college-rigor coursework with credentialed instructors
- Receiving support from high school and college staff and faculty
- Beginning college while still experiencing high school
- Saving time and money!
 - Boost Scholarship in service area.
 - Low-cost or no-cost textbook options

Central Plains HS	Chase HS	Ellinwood HS	Ellsworth HS
Great Bend HS	Hoisington HS	LaCrosse HS	Larned HS
Lyons HS	Otis-Bison HS	Pawnee Heights HS	Russell HS
St John HS	Wilson HS	Blue Valley- Randolph HS	Kinsley HS
Macksville HS	Ness City HS	Skyline (Pratt) HS	Stafford HS

Italics indicate schools offering Partnered Online courses

Opportunities and Developments

Homeschool Partnerships: Including homeschool contacts in email promotions about events and upcoming semester offerings.

Initiating partnership with local homeschool group liaison for potential information session and dual credit enrollment day in the spring.

Newsletter and Yearbook Promotion: Maggie Harris (PR) is working to place ads in high school newsletters and yearbooks.

Excel in CTE On Campus: Welding expansion, plumbing, and carpentry on campus. Meeting with USD partners for potential high school offerings in January (1/18).

Schmidt Foundation Scholarships: Awarding five $10,000 scholarships for 2022 – 2023 business and marketing students. Met with USD partners in December and continuing sharing information with business teachers and FBLA contacts at service-area schools.