

Fort Riley Campus

BARTON

COMMUNITY COLLEGE

Military Programs

BARTON
COMMUNITY COLLEGE

The Military Industry

- Barton Community College Military Programs deliver relevant, hands-on education that supports unit readiness, develops technical and leadership competencies, and equips Soldiers, Department of Defense civilians, veterans, and military families with the credentials needed to succeed during service and beyond.

Barton's CTE Response

- 3 One-Year Certificates (30 Credit Hours)
- Applied Technologies A.A.S. (60 Credit Hours)
- 30 credits accepted from any military certificate
- Online & In-Person Options
- Customized Business & Industry Training
- Stackable Credentials for Career Advancement

Career

Career Outlook (2024–2034)

- High-demand careers with projected growth of 4%–17%
- Strongest growth: Logistics (17%) and Occupational Health & Safety (12.5%)
- Continued demand in transportation, operations management, emergency management, and defense industries
- Driven by defense modernization, supply chain expansion, workforce retirements, and OSHA compliance

Salary Potential

- Median salaries range from approximately $83,000 to over $100,000 annually.

Questions?

BARTON
COMMUNITY COLLEGE